

UNIVERSITY OF HOHENHEIM

We are hiring:

Student Assistant (f/m/d), Hohenheim Innovation Greenhouse, 32 hours / month, beginning in April 2021

Are you on fire for digital and sustainable innovations? Do you like to work in a young and motivated team and connect with others? Then you should apply as a student assistant at the newly founded Hohenheim Innovation Greenhouse.

We are looking for a student assistant (HiWi, aka changemaker) to support our activities in the Hohenheim Innovation Greenhouse, especially concerning the conceptualization and implementation of a greenhouse film studio in order to provide marvelous digital content for our community.

What we are looking for:

- You study business informatics/ media science or have previous technical experience in filming and/or livestreaming.
- You fit the position if you're enthusiastic about filming, podcasting or photography and like media technology.
- You are a reliable teamplayer and passionate about green/social innovation.

What's in it for you:

- You will pioneer, conceptualize and implement the InnoGreenhouse film studio – a new studio for our startup community.
- You will get in contact with Hohenheim's vibrant startup culture and many interesting people.
- You will work closely with a motivated team.
- We pay 11,64€ per hour for student assistants with a bachelor's degree (~32h / month).
- Starting date: Open until filled, apply now.

Send your application consisting of CV, transcript of records and a brief motivation letter via e-mail to: leif.braendle@uni-hohenheim.de (Prof. Dr. Andreas Kuckertz).

Please use the subject line: "Application Changemaker - [your last name]".

We are looking forward to receiving your applications!
