

The Department of Management and Entrepreneurship – Institute of Marketing and Management – of the University of Bern invites applications for

Assistant Professorship in Strategic Entrepreneurship (tenure track)

Your roles and responsibilities

- teaching and research with special focus on entrepreneurship and international management
- teaching at the undergraduate, graduate and executive level
- teaching requirement of four hours per week
- courses can be taught in German and/or English

Your profile

- outstanding academic qualification
- Ph.D. or doctoral degree in business administration with specialization in entrepreneurship and or international strategic management or in closely related areas
- strong publication record in internationally respected journals
- strong research interest in areas such as strategic orientations, entrepreneurial mindset and behavior, start-ups, entrepreneurial teams and/or venturing
- willingness to collaborate across disciplines
- German language skills are required

We offer

- very attractive living conditions in Bern
- very inspiring working environment for researcher with a special focus on research projects that aim at publications in internationally leading academic journals
- competitive salary
- vital and supporting entrepreneurial ecosystem

Interested?

For additional information please contact www.bwl.unibe.ch/ab or Prof. Dr. Artur Baldauf
++41 (31) 631 53 31
prof.baldauf@imu.unibe.ch
www.management.imu.unibe.ch

Applications inclusive of curriculum vitae, list of publications, research and teaching statements and documentation of research grants should be sent electronically to the committee, Prof. Dr. Artur Baldauf, Engenhaldenstrasse 4, CH 3012 Bern, Switzerland.

Closing date: September 2, 2015