

We are hiring:

Student Assistant (f/m/d), Hohenheim Innovation Greenhouse, 20/32 hours / month, beginning in January 2021

Are you on fire for sustainable innovations? Do you want to get involved and promote sustainable green ideas? Do you like to work in a young and motivated team and connect with others? Then you should apply as a student assistant at the newly founded Hohenheim Innovation Greenhouse.

We are looking for two student assistants (HiWi, aka changemakers) to support our activities in the Hohenheim Innovation Greenhouse, especially concerning the organization of events, the preparation of presentations, the management of partnerships, and the building of a startup community.

What we are looking for:

- You fit in the team if you are passionate about green and social innovation.
- You fit the position if you're enthusiastic about planning and organizing events and meeting new people.
- You are a reliable teamplayer.
- You plan to stay at least one more year at the University of Hohenheim.
- Ideally, you have previous experience in event management and social media.

What's in it for you:

- You will get in contact with Hohenheim's vibrant startup culture and many interesting people.
- You will mainly be working on the megatrend of sustainability and innovation.
- You will work closely with a motivated team.
- We pay 11,64€ per hour for student assistants with a bachelor's degree (~32h / month).
- Starting date: Open until filled, apply now.

Send your application consisting of CV, transcript of records and a max. two minute video presenting you and why you fit this position via e-mail to: kristina.bogner@uni-hohenheim.de (Prof. Ebersberger) or leif.braendle@uni-hohenheim.de (Prof. Kuckertz).
